Dinty W. Moore's new book, Dear Mister Essay Writer Guy, Advice and Confessions on Writing, Love, and Cannibals, is a droll, delicious exposé of the inner workings of Moore's mind. Oh, and it's a writing tutorial as well, although not in the instructional sense — commas here, apostrophes there, watch those dangling participles — but in the classic show don't tell sense. Moore shows you how to write the most sublime essays in answer to questions posed by contemporary essay ...
